

CAUTION!

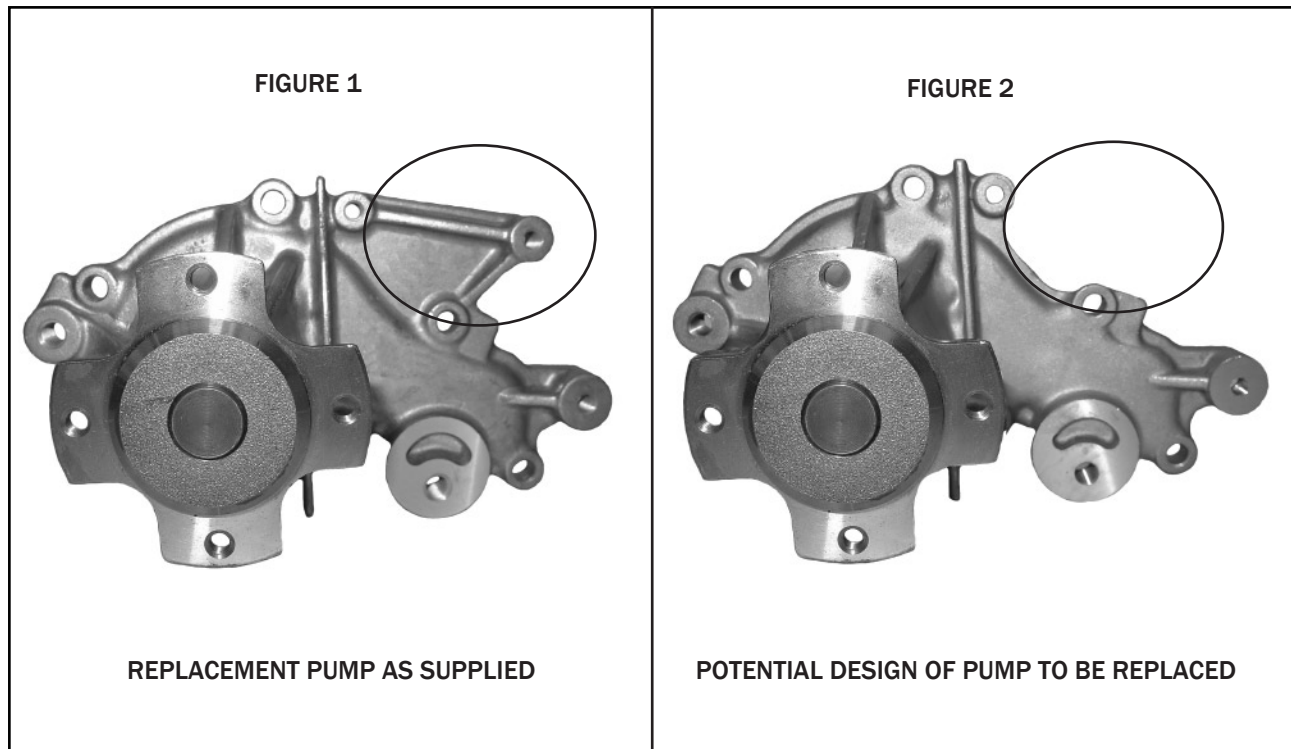

SPECIAL ASSEMBLY INSTRUCTIONS

Failure to follow the instructions will void the warranty on this pump.

Enclosed water pump will mount properly as noted.

The enclosed water pump may cosmetically differ from the water pump that you are replacing. As you will see noted in Figures 1 and 2, the enclosed water pump has a mounting boss area that may or may not be present on the pump that you are replacing. This water pump has been engineered and manufactured to fit both applications. If your application does not require the additional mounting boss, it can be ignored, as it will not affect the installation or the overall operation of the water pump.

(See illustration.)
